

From our heart to yours

Hilton is offering special rates for those needing a home away from home during these difficult times.

For our healthcare professionals in need of a comfortable place to rest after a long day or extra shift, we're here. For displaced students and their families, we're here. For those answering the call to care during this time of uncertainty and isolation, the Heart of Hilton is here for you.

For details and to check availability across our portfolio, click here. For bookings of ten or more people, please contact GroupMeetingRFP@Hilton.com or call 866-215-2929.

Terms & Conditions:

Subject to verification at check-in. This offer is intended for healthcare professionals, individuals affiliated, supporting or visiting medical facilities, displaced students and their family seeking accommodations for up to nine rooms. For rooms of ten or more people per night, please contact GroupMeetingRFP@Hilton.com. Participating hotels may ask for valid credentials of professional, organizational affiliation or student identification. This is a limited time offer that is subject to change.

The health and safety of our guests and team members is our top priority. Please reference Hilton's COVID-19 Customer Statement for the latest information about our cleanliness and hygiene standards and policies.

NOTE: Commercial drivers, when making your reservation, please indicate you require truck/trailer parking.